CIRCULAR No. 56

विषय/Sub - Entrustment of charge of Senior Audit Officers to the Assistant Audit Officers in IA&AD

It has been decided to fill up the vacancies of Senior Audit Officers from the Assistant Audit Officers, purely on ad-hoc basis, for the panel year 2021 subject to the following conditions:

- a) The arrangement will be purely an entrustment of charge of vacant posts of Senior Audit Officers on ad-hoc basis and will not constitute promotion or appointment to the post of Sr. AOs.
- b) The period served in ad-hoc charge will not be counted for any purposes for promotion to Sr. AOs or next higher grades or for the purpose of seniority, promotion, financial benefits (increment, MACP, pension etc.) or for any other entitlement.
- c) In case of deputation to another office within or outside IA&AD, the officer shall be reverted to the original post of AAO, before proceeding on the deputation.
- d) The AAOs, who will look after the charge of Sr. AOs, will be paid a Charge Allowance of Rs. 2,500/- p.m. in addition to pay in their own level. No other special allowance in addition to that will be permissible to them.
- e) The period of such charge will not exceed, in any case, beyond one year or till further orders, whichever is earlier. However, the ad-hoc arrangement can be terminated at any time without assigning any reasons.
- f) The AAOs, who will look after the charge of Sr. Audit Officers will not exercise the statutory powers vested in the post of Senior Audit Officers under CCS (CCA) Rules, 1965.
- g) The AAOs so entrusted with the charge of SAOs will be designated as Senior Audit Officers (Ad hoc).

The officers in the list attached are likely to be considered for entrustment as ad-hoc Senior Audit Officers. It is requested that willingness/unwillingness to be considered for entrustment as ad-hoc Senior Audit Officers, may be intimated to OE/Administration (Audit-I) in the format enclosed on or before 04.02.2022.
