CIRCULAR No: WM-I/ 21 Date: 16/01/2023

Subject :- Regarding regulation of medical attendance rules in respect of Divisional Accountant Cadre

Certain problems have been brought to the notice of this office in processing of medical claims of Divisional Accountants/ Divisional Accounts Officers.

The question has been examined in this office and it is clarified that as the medical reimbursement charges of all the Divisional Accountants/ Divisional Accounts Officers are subject to the application of Central Services (Medical Attendance) Rules, 1944. The said rules will apply in all the matters of medical reimbursement of Divisional Accountant and Divisional Accounts Officers including the exercising of powers of the controlling authorities.

Under the provisions of Central Services (Medical Attendance) Rules, 1944 all bills for charges, on account of medical attendance and treatment should be sanctioned/ countersigned by the Controlling authorities who are empowered to countersign the travelling allowances Bills of the Government servants concerned. Therefore, Executive Engineer who are competent to sign the TA bills of Divisional Accountants/ Divisional Accounts Officers automatically become empowered to sanction/countersign the medical claim of Divisional Accountants/ Divisional Accounts Officers. Advance for medical treatment may also be regulated according to the Central Services (Medical Attendance) rules, 1944.

All the Executive Engineer, may therefore, exercise these powers in accordance with the said rules
