Dear Sir / Madam,

Sub: e-Journal of Government Audit and Accounts

The 11th edition of 'e-Journal of Government Audit and Accounts' is now available on the CAG's website.

2. This edition is not limited to one specific theme and includes articles related to Cutting edge technologies and tools from artificial intelligence to machine learning, Geographic Information Systems and remote sensing, and their potential in audit.

3. The e-Journal can be accessed through the following path:

Go to CAG's website -> Click on Menu -> Click on "Journal of Government Audit and Accounts" under RESOURCES tab.

4. We look forward to your feedback and support in making the e-journal a dynamic platform for knowledge sharing in the Department.

Warm regards

-sd-
