GENERAL CIRCULAR

The Comptroller and Auditor General (CAG) of India derives its authority from Article 148 to 151 of the Constitution of India, which establish it as an independent constitutional authority responsible for auditing the accounts of Union and States.

The Comptroller and Auditor General of India is not an executive authority governing day-to-day service matters of employees within the Indian Audit and Accounts Department (IA&AD). The CAG, as a constitutional authority, does not have a direct role in these service matters.

The Deputy Comptroller and Auditor General (Dy. CAG)- Human Resources (HR) is the designated competent authority responsible for day-to-day service/entitlement matters of employees within IA&AD.

The above position is being clarified by way of this General Circular for information of all officers/employees of Divisional Accountant Cadre.
