

Preface

This Report of the Comptroller and Auditor General of India has been prepared to assess the adequacy and effectiveness of the efforts made by the Government of India and the Managements of sick Central Public Sector Enterprises (CPSEs) to address the problems of sickness in these companies. The Report is based on the examination of records of 10 sick CPSEs and their concerned Administrative Ministries.