Keeping in view the scores obtained, financial position of family, dependency status, sources of livelihood, assets and liabilities, status of employment, and in general emergent need for appointment on compassionate grounds, etc., the Committee arrived at the following decisions as detailed in the Table below.

Table 2: Scores obtained and Recommendations of the Committee

Sl. No.	Name of the applicant with Unique registration Number and relation to the deceased employee	Score obtained and Recommendations of the Committee
1	Sh. Dharamvir Khandelwal, son of Late Sh. Naresh Kumar, Ex, Sr. Ar. (DELINFRA01)	Score obtained: 85/165 It was observed that all the dependent family members including the applicant (D.O.B 20.07.1986) were major at the time of death (01.11.2012) of the deceased employee. As per the verification report, the family has an immovable property (double storey house in Delhi), as well as substantial cash in bank account. Further, no current liabilities exist as per the verification report. It was seen that the deceased employee Late Shri Naresh Kumar expired on 01.11.2012 and the family has managed to sustain itself for more than nine years. In view of the above, the Committee recommends the case to be rejected as the applicant is not in a dire need to relieve the family of the deceased employee from financial destitution and to help it get over the emergency.
2	Sh. Devender Kumar, son of Late Sh. Ramesh Chand Ex. SGRK (DELINFRA02)	Score obtained: 80/165 It was observed that all the dependent family members including the applicant (D.O.B 21.05.1984) were major at the time of death (01.01.2013) of the deceased employee and applicant had already exceed the maximum age limit for appointment to available vacancies. Further, a son of the deceased employee was a permanent government employee in IAAD at the time of death of the deceased employee and is currently posted as Senior Auditor. However, details of the earning member have not been disclosed by the applicant, in its application/affidavit submitted regarding the family members. It was also seen that the deceased employee Late Shri Ramesh Chand expired on 01.01.2013 and the family has managed to sustain itself for more than eight years. In view of the above, the Committee recommends the case to be rejected as the applicant is not in a dire need to relieve the family of the deceased employee from financial destitution and to help it get over the emergency.

3	Sh. Dushyant Kumar, son of Late Beli Ram, Ex. Auditor (DELINFRA03)	Score obtained: 105/165 In view of the scores obtained, financial position, no regular employment etc., the Committee recommends the case to be approved as the applicant is in a need to relieve the family of the deceased employee from financial destitution and to help it get over the distress.
4	Ms. Smita, wife of Late Sh. Anil Kumar, Ex. Sr. AO (DELINFRA04)	Score obtained: 85/165 In view of the scoresheet, dependent children, financial liabilities (educational expenses of children), no regular employment etc. the Committee recommends the case to be approved as the applicant is in a need to relieve the family of the deceased employee from financial destitution and to help it get over the distress.
5	Sh. Sumit Kumar, son of Sh. Manbir Singh. Ex. AAO (DELINFRA05)	Score obtained: 85/165 In view of the scoresheet, absence of earning member in family, etc. the Committee recommends the case to be approved as the applicant is in a need to relieve the family of the deceased employee from financial destitution and to help it get over the distress.
6	Ms. Sunita Devi, wife of Late Sh. Jeet Singh, Ex. Clerk (DELINFRA06)	Score obtained: 130/165 In view of the scoresheet, minor children (9 and 7 years old) of the deceased employee, long service left (28 years), lack of immovable property as alternate source of livelihood, Committee recommends the case to be approved as the applicant is in a dire need to relieve the family of the deceased employee from financial destitution and to help it get over the distress.
7	Sh. Yudhvir Singh Sindhu, son of Late Sh. Kartar Singh, Ex. Clerk (DELINFRA07)	Score obtained: 120/165 As per the office records, the deceased employee had two dependent minor sons (including the applicant) at the time of his death. Later, office came to know that after the death of his first wife, Late Sh. Kartar Singh had re-married, which was not updated in the office records. As per the verification report and application, there was a legal dispute between the applicant (and his brother) and second wife of the deceased employee regarding heirship of the deceased employee. In this legal dispute, Court (Addl. Court (Sr.Div.), Rohtak) had declared (September 2017) the two sons, second wife, and daughter (stepsister of applicant) as Class-I legal heirs. Accordingly, the pension amount and terminal benefits were proportionally divided among the four family members and released in November 2018. Committee was informed that application of second wife was considered and rejected on 15.03.2018. Headquarters vide letter dated 28.09.2021 had stated that considering the case of Sh. Yudhvir Singh Sindhu's application would not result in 2 nd appointment on compassionate grounds. As per the verification report and information given in application, dispute is ongoing between the second wife and applicant (and his brother regarding inheritance of immovable property). It was also observed that the applicant had responsibilities to repay the debts taken by deceased employee, to fund his brother's education, litigative costs due to ongoing legal disputes, immovable property under litigation. It was observed that the Shri Kartar Singh had expired in August 2011, and since then more than a decade has passed, during which request of Sh. Yudhvir Singh Sindhu is being considered for the 1 st time. In view of the scoresheet, substantial loans, lack of alternate source of livelihood, expenses on brother's education, immovable property under litigation, etc. Committee recommends the case to be approved as the applicant is in a dire need to relieve the family of the deceased employee from financial destitution and to help it get over the distress.
