OFFICE ORDER

As per Exam Wings' Circular No. 10 of 2020 Letter No. 370/04-Exam/MSO Chapter 9-Revision/2020 Dated 15th October 2020 and Circular No. 11 of 2020 No. 75/03-Exam/Addl.Chance/2016/Vol. I dated 19th October 2020, the SAS/RA/I/CPD Main and Supplementary SAS/RA/I/CPD Examinations has been renamed as Examination-1 and Examination-2 of the year. The cut-off dates for determining the eligibility of the officials for SAS/RA/I/CPD Examinations will be 1st March for Examination-1 and 1st September for Examination-2 of the year. Competent Authority has also increased the number of chances to pass the SAS Examination from 10 to 12.

The details of the modified system are as under:

1. Under the modified system, the total chances to pass the SAS Examination will be twelve (6 normal + 6 additional)
2. The time limit for passing the SAS Examination will be eight years considering two Examinations in a year (8 years for 12 chances). The six additional chances are not consecutive as earlier.
3. The additional six chances may be admissible only to those candidates who have cleared five papers within first (normal) six attempts (6+6=12).
4. The eligible officials will be allowed to appear afresh in the SAS Examination after exhausting either twelve chances or eight years whichever is earlier from the first registration of CBT without any carry forward of exempted papers.
5. The eligible officials who could not pass five papers within the first (normal) six chances will also be allowed to appear afresh in the SAS Examination without any carry forward of exempted papers (no need to wait for completion of eight years).
6. Afresh means that the candidates are required to be screened through the Preliminary test, mandatory training, etc as applicable to candidates appearing for the first time.
7. Those who have already exhausted ten chances will be allowed two more chances from next SAS Examination- I and has to avail these two chances within two years i.e. four Examinations (counting from Examination-I of 2021).
8. In the modified system also, chance will be counted once a candidate registers for the SAS Examination.
9. No scope for withdrawal of candidature under the modified system.
10. This modified system including the counting of eight years of SAS Examination will be applicable from the 1st examination (Examination-1) to be held in the year 2021.
